Dear BRANDON HOWARD

It appears that no matter how desperate we are to receive the timesheets for my wife to fill out and send back to get her IHSS funds we need to immediately change the IHSS worker that is on our case.

As I have already told you during our phone conversations this worker is either incredibly incompetent or she is attempting to take revenge or retaliation on me. Please, please, please, listen to this message that she left me this morning.

It is totally incredible that she is asking me questions that you and I clearly settled in our last phone conversation. Please, please, please, have this worker replaced immediately!!

As soon as I send this e-mail I will call you to confirm that you have received it and have had the opportunity to hear the above referenced phone message.

Thank you for handling this attached file promptly and efficiently.

With All Sincerity,
Robert Colaco
