ENLIGHTENING CHURCH-STATE DEBATE, FRAMERS OF CONSTITUTION SOUGHT TO PRESERVE FREE SPEECH OF RELIGIOUS FIGURES IN FIRST AMENDMENT, NOT TO REMOVE PIETY FROM PUBLIC PRACTICE

I am writing respectfully to disagree with the commentary article printed by the Daily News on Saturday, April 12, titled "Religious right vs. public schools." The commentary was by Harry Schwartzbart, president of the San Fernando Chapter of Americans United for Separation of Church and State. First of all let me address two of Mr. Schwartzbart's statements: "Because of the Constitution's church/state separation provisions . . ." and "The separation of church and state mandated by...

IRS SEIZES BOOKKEEPING FIRM RUN BY CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS

The Internal Revenue Service has seized a business run by Robert Colaco, a candidate for the 24th Congressional District whose campaign slogan is: "Taxpayer advocate - Don't let government rip you off." Colaco, a Republican and president of Centsable Data Corp. in Van Nuys, said the IRS seized the bookkeeping company's assets last week to collect about $19,000 in unpaid payroll taxes. IRS spokesman Michael Shuler said Centsable Data's assets were seized under a lien filed in...

BRADLEY RECALL DRIVE FALLS SHORT, SIGNATURES LACKING FOR BALLOT MEASURE

A Van Nuys-based group seeking to recall Mayor Tom Bradley from office has failed to collect enough signatures to qualify the measure for the ballot, its chairman said Thursday. Robert Colaco, chairman of the Bradley Recall Coalition, said the group collected fewer than half of the 184,896 signatures it needed by today to place a recall measure on the city ballot. "We still have hundreds of signatures coming in. But, sadly, I don't foresee that we will make tomorrow's deadline,"...
